Sat[urday] We all except Papa set out from Leeds' New Station @[at] 9.20 went straight thro[ugh] to York &[and] then to Malton where we changed came on to Pickering &[and] then stopped @[at] all the stations putting Gertie out at Goathland &[and] Uncle getting in &[and] arrived at Whitby @[at] 1 o'clock being half an hour late, had tea, Uncle went back &[and] Willie &[and] I <go> went down to Boghall Dock &[and] saw the tide rise, Papa arrived at 5.15 being 1/4 hour late had tea. Papa <&> I <went> &[and] Willie went on to the pier came back by Kyber*[Khyber] pass &[and] along the cliff home had supper &[and] turned in.

set out @[at] 8.30. and. Sun[day] Walked to the Light houses with Papa over the fields &[and] back by the sea saw a pair of Cormorants, had a wade in the water got dressed sat down in a pool of water Papa putting his feet into one. Saw 3 or 4 Whale's jaws stuck in the ground &[and] forming arches got home at 12.30. &[and] had dinner <walked a mile> went to meet my Uncle with Papa doing so a mile beyond Ruswarp. Came home had tea. saw Uncle off. &[and] walked along the pier with Papa. &[and] up the cliff &[and] saw the promenade, began to rain so walked back home. Willie has got a gathered heel, he bathed it in hot water which <is brining*[bringing] it to a head> reduced the inflammation -

Mon[day] set out with Papa &[and] went passed the Church along the cliff. &[and] came down passed*[past] saltwick Nab. &[and] made a sketch of the east cliff beyond Saltwick. Saw thousands of small holes in the sand. &[and] wen<t>*[when] poked little things like Maggots came jumping out which we found to be young shrimps, I had another wade &[and] then came home @[at] 1.30 &[and] had dinner, did not go out in afternoon because it rained had tea &[and] went out to fish &[and] caught an eel about 1 f[oo]t long. Came in &[and] to post &[and] along the pier stood to watch an auctioneer. &[and] came home by the cliff had supper &[and] went to bed @[at] 10 O'clock

[4]

TUES[DAY] Tues[day]- Willie Papa &[and] I set out by train @[at] 10.10. to Lleights*[Sleights] Pa &[and] <we> I got a sketch &[and] then we came back @[at] 12.30 &[and] had dinner. Then we went out <out> fishing I caught nothing but Willie caught a young cod fish &[and] a repulsive thing with a very big head &[and] some spikes along its back we then came in &[and] had tea, and then went out to fish a while again. without success. it began to rain so we came in &[and] had supper. &[and] went to bed. It rained very heavily the greater part of the night-

[5]

WED[NESDAY] Wed[nesday] It rained but cleared up about 11 so we had a walk on to the pier &[and] came in in time for dinner. after which it rained again but we went out about 2.30. &[and] met with Mr Hobroyd his son &[and] a friend - who were just going out fishing so Willie &[and] I jump in &[and] we went <out abo> about 2 miles out &[and] then cast <an> anchor &[and] threw in our lines Willie caught the first two. <this> both these being whiting Mr Hobroyd then caught 1 gurnard &[and] his son 1 plaice &[and] I caught 1 gurnard &[and] 1 plaice Mr Hobroyd' friend caught nothing so that we had. 2 Whiting 2 gurnard 2 plaice making a total of 6. It began to thunder so we drew up the anchor &[and] put up the sail when we got about 1 mile in it began to rain in torrents so that we were pretty wet, when we got in, Mr Hobroyd gave us the other two fish. We got home &[and] had tea after which we changed our clothes. we were idle till we got supper, after which we went to bed <?>

[7]

THURS[DAY] This morning I & Papa - walked to Landsend & saw Sneaton Castle we both took a sketch & came home over the cliff in <?> of [?] & had dinner eating the fish which we caught yesterday. We did not go out this afternoon but when we had finished tea we walked to Ruswarp. where we saw an avairy consisting of an owl, thrush, hawk & several smaller birds we came back & stopped in the house a while & @ [at] 9 O'clock he had a walk to the station & back after which we came in & went to bed.

[8]

Fri[day] Before breakfast I went to the station to fetch the papers. it rained very hard this morning <so we could not get out> we put our mack[intosh]s on & got out a bit & when we got back Uncle was here & he had brought some potatoes cabbage & and mushrooms. Uncle & Papa went away to Goathland at half past three & Papa is going to shop till tomorrow morning. We had tea & went out with Miss Hardcastle over the bridge & we came back by the West cliff. & skinned the mushrooms had supper & then went to bed. This is the worst we have yet had, very heavy rain in the afternoon -

[9]

Sat[urday] After breakfast I went down to the station & took a sketch of the old town while Willie & Grandma had a walk on to the pier we came in <&> & had <had> dinner & when we had finished we saw Papa coming down the hill from Ruswarp. & when he came in he said he had missed the train from Sleights we went into Baxtergate to order provisions & then we to meet Mr Treweek & had tea. After which we went to the saloon & heard the concert & Willie & I came home (leaving Mr Treweek & Papa to smoke their pipes) & had supper and when they came in we went to bed this is the finest day we have had

[10]

Sun[day] After breakfast Papa & Mr Trew[eeek] went to the station to meet Uncle & also*[also] Mr Holmes & Mr Reid. When they were going to Robin<s> Hood's Bay - We went on to the sands - & came back & had dinner in the afternoon we did not go out although it was beautifully fine but stopped in & read. We then had tea & Papa & Mr Treweek came in <&> about 6 O'clock <we went> Papa, Mr Trewek*[Treweek] & I went on to the cliff while Willie & Miss Hard castle went to the Congress Hall & heard the missary*[missionary] This day was quite as fine as Sat[urday].

[11]

Mon[day] We had breakfast & then went <to the station & went> to Goatland*[Goathland] at 9.15 to spend the day. we arrived & amused ourselves with playing at quoits till dinner time after which Papa & Uncle had several game. We had tea & then Mr Treweek left to go to Leeds by the 6.33 home again we left goatland*[Goathland] station @ [at] <five past eight> 8.5 & arrived @ [at] Whitby at 8.40

when we had supper

Tues[day] It rained very hard all day & could not except at night when I was obliged to go out to get some bread Wed[nesday] It rained quite as heavy today as it did yesterday but still Papa & I went to egton by train where we both got two sketches. each then we<r> walked thro'[ugh] Arncliffe woods. up to Beggars bridge & back again then we walked to Grosmont & <?> saw hurdle jumping then we got in the train & came home

Thurs[day] This day was quite as bad as either Tues[day] or Wed[nesday] but we went onto the pier & sands in the morning <?> It was much too wet to go out this afternoon

Fri[day] In the morning Papa Willie & I went to sandsend & it was blowing a gale (for they <the> had the S[torm] Cone hoisted) - & the dry sand was blown up with great force as we were going it was in our faces & we<r> were blown back two yards as soon as we had mad*[made] four so it was very slow work we came back by the cliffs & had dinner in the afternoon we went to the escibition*[exhibition] Came in & had tea. Went to the esci[exhibition] again & went to bed. Sat[urday] This morning we went to the escibition*[exhibition], & saw about 40 of Mr Wetherils pictures we had diner*[dinner] & left Whitby for Leeds at 2 oclock arriving at our destination about 5.30. we came up to Hard in a cab & got safely home thus ended our, holiday in WHITBY.
