Biodiversity is life and the remarkable variety of all living things.

During 2010, the world celebrated the International Year of Biodiversity. All around the country, Australian museums worked with communities to discover, celebrate and promote biodiversity, and encourage participation in biodiversity events. It's not too late to include your story! Visit - http://www.biodiversity2010.org.au

CAMD | COUNCIL OF AUSTRALASIAN MUSEUM DIRECTORS

2010 International Year of Biodiversity